

statement shall also contain information concerning pertinent training in vocational training schools or similar training facilities, including the dates of such training and the identity of the vocational school or training facility. If the learner has had no applicable experience or pertinent training, a statement to that effect signed by the learner should likewise be kept in the employer's records.

(c) The employer shall maintain a file of all evidence and records, including any correspondence, pertaining to the filing or cancellation of job orders placed with the local State or Territorial Public Employment Service Office under §§ 522.5(b) and 522.6(f).

(d) The records required in this section, including a copy of any special certificate issued, shall be kept and made available for inspection at all times for at least three years from the last effective date of the certificate.

§ 522.9 Reconsideration and review.

(a) Any person aggrieved by the action of an authorized representative of the Administrator denying or granting a learner certificate may, within 15 days after such action, (1) File a written request for reconsideration thereof by the authorized representative of the Administrator who made the decision in the first instance, or (2) file a written request for review of the decision by the Administrator or an authorized representative who has taken no part in the action which is the subject of review.

(b) A request for reconsideration shall be accompanied by a statement of the additional evidence which the applicant believes may materially affect the decision and a showing that there were reasonable grounds for failure to present such evidence in the original proceedings.

(c) Any person aggrieved by the reconsidered determination of an authorized representative of the Administrator may within 15 days after such determination, file with the Administrator a written request for review.

(d) A request for review shall be granted where reasonable grounds for the review are set forth in the request.

(e) If a request for reconsideration or review is granted, the Administrator or his authorized representative may, to the extent he deems it appropriate, afford other interested persons an opportunity to present data and views.

§ 522.10 Supplemental industry regulations.

(a) Upon application of any person or persons, representing an industry or branch thereof, or upon his own motion, the Administrator, if he deems it advisable, may, after appropriate and timely notice to interested parties, cause a hearing to be held to determine the need for the employment of learners at wages lower than the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the act in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment in an industry or branch thereof; and if such need is found to exist, to determine the occupation or occupations which require a learning period and the limitations as to wages, time, number, proportion, and length of service pursuant to which learner certificates authorizing the employment of learners at such subminimum wage rates may be issued to employers. Such hearing shall be held before the Administrator or his duly authorized representative. Following such hearing the Administrator shall, by supplemental regulations, prescribe the conditions under which special certificates shall be issued for the employment of learners in such industry or branch thereof, if he determines that there is a need therefor to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment.
